Global Sociology and the deep time of infrastructure

By Yara Sa’di-Ibraheem. Bringing global-sociological reflexivity to infrastructure studies, I examine how infrastructures enact power across space and time and how a longue durée approach traces colonial infrastructural formations shaping the present.